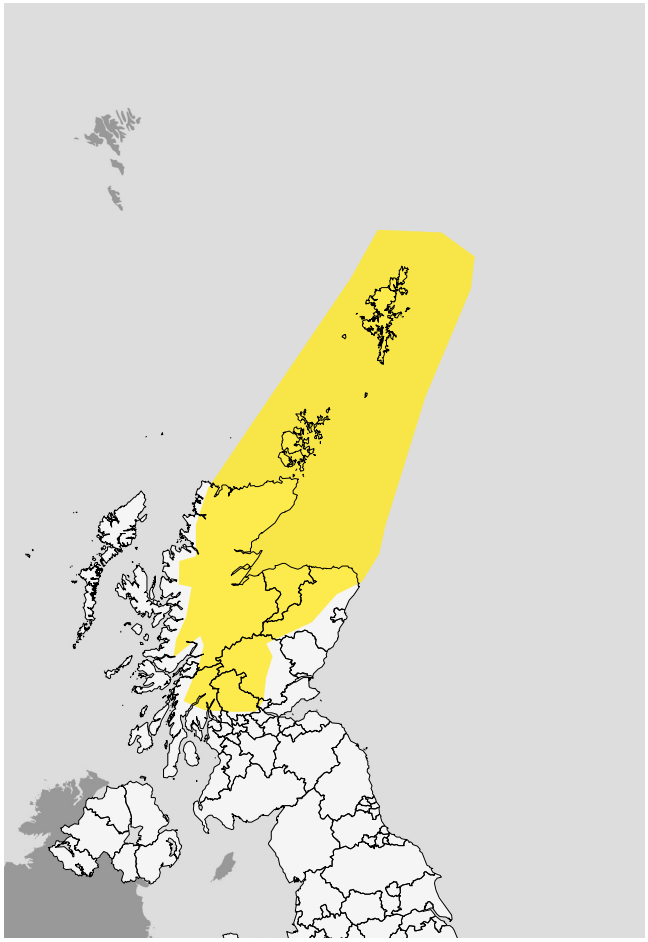
Yellow warning
Snow & Ice

Between
00:00 Fri 19 Jan 2024 and
15:00 Fri 19 Jan 2024



Further snow, as well as the threat of icy patches, will bring further disruption on Friday.

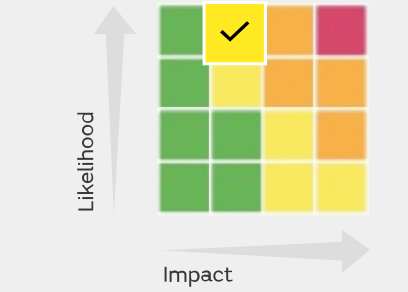
What to expect

- Some roads and railways affected with longer journey times by road, bus and train services
- Some injuries from slips and falls on icy surfaces
- Icy patches on some untreated roads, pavements and cycle paths

Further details

Wintry showers will continue on Friday, some of these showers becoming quite prolonged. Further accumulations of up to 5 cm are possible on low ground at first, and 10 to 20 cm possible on ground above 300 metres where fresh snow will be drifting in windy conditions. Snow will become increasingly confined to ground above 300 metres by the end of the morning.

Ice will be an additional hazard as snow showers turn to rain at lower levels through the morning.



✓ High likelihood of low impacts

What should I do?

Snowy, wintry weather can cause delays and make driving conditions dangerous. Keep yourself and others safe by planning your route, giving yourself extra time for your journey. Check for road closures or delays to public transport and amend plans if necessary.

If driving, make sure you have some essentials in your car in the event of any delays (e.g., warm clothing, food, water, a blanket, a torch, ice scraper/de icer, a warning triangle, high visibility vest and an in-car phone charger).

Be prepared for weather warnings to change quickly: when a weather warning is issued, the Met Office recommends staying up to date with the weather forecast in your area.
